HISTORY

Laid down by Messrs. Harland & Wolff Limited at Belfast, on 22nd September, 1941.

H. M. C. S. Ontario was launched on 29th July, 1943, by Mrs. J. M. Andrews, wife of the Prime Minister of Northern Ireland and originally christened H. M. S. Minotaur.

Prior to completion she was taken over by the Canadian Government and subsequently commissioned as H.M.C.S. Ontario on the 26th April, 1945.

Under the command of Captain H. T. W. Grant, D. S. O., (now Vice Admiral H. T. W. Grant, C. B. E., D. S. O., Chief of the Naval Staff), H. M. C. S. Ontario sailed for the Far East arriving in Eastern Pacific waters shortly after the Japanese surrender. She was assigned to the Hong Kong area for policing duties and on completion sailed for Esquimalt via Pearl Harbour. After her arrival in November, 1945, H. M. C. S. Ontario was reduced to care and maintenance.

Since being brought forward for further service in the Summer of 1947 H. M. C. S. Ontario has been employed in training Canadian Naval Personnel of both the active and reserve forces. Cruises have been made to Alaska, the Gulf of California, The West Indies, Pearl Harbour, Samoa, the Fiji Isles, Australia and New Zealand.

HISTORICAL RECORDS MENTION
TWO PREVIOUS WARSHIPS OF HER NAME:

1. Sloop "Ontario" in service 1756 but not registered in the List of Navy. Lost at the beginning of the Seven Years' War when the French overran Lake Ontario.

2. H. M. S. "Ontario", a brig sloop of 384 tons and 18 guns, built in 1813-1814. From July, 1818, to December, 1821, she was in commission in the West Indies. She was sold out of the Navy on November 28th, 1832.
