MINISTER OF NATIONAL DEFENCE FOR NAVAL SERVICES

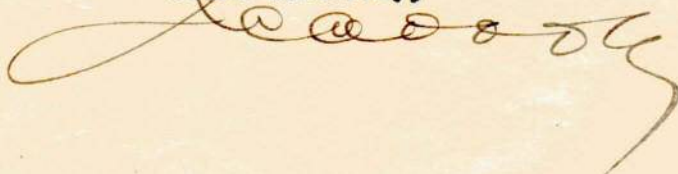

25 January, 1946.

Dear Mrs. Milligan,

I am pleased to inform you that His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve the award of a Mention in Despatches to your son, Ross Elwood Milligan, formerly a Petty Officer in the Naval Forces of Canada for distinguished service during the war in Europe. This award was published in the London Gazette on the 11 December, 1945.

The Chief of the Naval Staff, the members of the Naval Board and I highly appreciate the contribution which your son has made toward the war effort of the Royal Canadian Navy, the high traditions of which he has helped to maintain.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Etta Milligan,
15 Richard Street,

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL DEFENCE

NAVAL SERVICES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This will introduce.....Mr. Ross Milligan..... recently discharged from the Canadian Naval Services.

In order to facilitate their civilian re-establishment, those who have served in the Navy are provided with their discharge certificate and certain other Service documents in addition to the information outlined below.

Civilian and Service History

On the back of this sheet is a summary of education and of pre-enlistment work experience, together with some details of Naval training, specific duties, promotions and awards.

Naval Training and Duties

Attached sheets outline the training and usual duties of such a rating as the bearer. (The rates in the Navy constitute a series roughly parallel to Army ranks from private to sergeant-major).

Related Civilian Work

In the centre pages of a folder addressed to the rating are suggestions of civilian work related to Service training.

For this, and other Naval rates, a more detailed list of civilian work related to Naval training has been prepared for the use of Naval counsellors. A complete set of these may be obtained on request from the Secretary, Naval Board, Naval Service Headquarters, Ottawa.

CONTINUOUS
CERTIFICATE OF DISCHARGE FOR SEAMEN

CANADA SHIPPING ACT, 1934

1. It is the duty of every Master to sign and give to a seaman discharged from his ship either on his discharge or on payment of his wages, a certificate of his discharge in a continuous discharge book, specifying the period of his service and the time and place of his discharge, but not containing any statement as to his wages or the quality of his work, unless requested by the seaman. For failure to comply, the Master is liable to a fine not exceeding $50.

2. The master shall also upon the discharge of every certificated officer whose certificate of competency has been delivered to and retained by him return the certificate to the officer. Failure to comply subjects the Master to a fine not exceeding $100.

Section 183 C.S. Act.—(1) Where a seaman is discharged before a Shipping Master, the Master shall make and sign, in a form approved by the Minister, or any form approved by the proper authority in that part of His Majesty's dominions in which the ship is registered, a report of the conduct, character and qualifications of the seaman discharged or may state in the said form that he declines to give any opinion upon such particulars, or upon any of them, and the Shipping Master before whom the discharge is made shall, if the seaman desires, give to him a copy of such report (in this Act referred to as the report of character).

(2) The Shipping Master shall transmit the reports to the Minister or to such other person as the Minister may direct, to be recorded.

(3) If any person (a) makes a false report of character under this Act, knowing the same to be false; or (b) forges or fraudulently alters any certificate of discharge or report of character or copy of a report of character; or (c) assists in committing, or procures to be committed, any of such offences as aforesaid; or (d) fraudulently uses any certificate of discharge or report of character or copy of a report of character which is forged or altered or does not belong to him; he shall in respect of each offence be guilty of an indictable offence.

NOTICE TO SEAMEN

(1) Seamen are informed that this continuous certificate should be produced and handed to the Master, Shipping Master, Collector of Customs acting as Shipping Master, Superintendent or Consul when signing Articles of Agreement, so that the engagement columns may be filled in and the certificate given into or retained in the safe keeping of the Master.

(2) Should the seaman desert or fail to join, his book will be deposited with the Shipping Master, Collector of Customs acting as Shipping Master, Superintendent or Consul at the port where he left the ship, who will retain it for a fortnight from the date of the vessel leaving, at the end of which time it will be forwarded to the Director, Marine Services, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Canada.

Milligan, Ross

Surname

Upon the seaman applying for the book it will be returned to him by the officer in whose possession it is, containing an entry in the discharge and character columns that the voyage was not completed. Upon the issue of a new book, consequent on loss, or destruction, a fee of $1.00 will be chargeable.

NOTE.—Should this certificate come into the possession of any person to whom it does not belong, it should be handed to the Shipping Master, or Superintendent of the nearest Mercantile Marine Office, or be transmitted to the Director, Marine Services, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Canada, postage unpaid.
