HAN OF THE COME

Mrs. M. Foster.

Dear Madam:

I regret to have to inform you of the death of your son on 31st July, in the Royal Naval Hospital, Haslar, and interred in the Naval cemetery Haslar on 4th August.

He was returning from a short leave when the ship he was on was in collision with another vessel and sustained serious injuries, from which he did not regain consciousness. He was removed immediately to hospital, where he died the following morning at 11.35 a.m. 31st July.

The "Mulgrave" was ordered out on operations so I was unable to be with him at the end; The Rev. Father Morrow, R.C.N. who was well known to your son was with him, and administered the last rites.

The ship's company attended the funeral, and full Military honours were accorded him, Father Morrow conducted the service. The intentions of the mass were offered up for him aboard the ship the following day by his shipmates.

The loss of this comrade is mourned by us all. I extend to you in this time of sorrow, the deepest sympathy of the whole ship's company.

I should be honoured to be of any service to you.

Your Obedient Servant,

R. Meredith, Lieutenant, R. C. N. R.

Captain H. M. C. S. "Mulgrave"

INFORMATION OF WITNESSES severally taken and acknowledged on behalf of our Sovereign Lord the King touching the death of John Patrick Foster at the House known by the name of R.N. Hospital Haslar in the parish of Gosport in the County of Southampton on Thursday the 3rd day of August 1944 before GERALD HEWETT WARNER Gentleman, one of His Majesty's Coroners for the said County on an Inquisition than and there held on view of the body of the said person then and there lying dead.

THIS DEPONENT on Oath saith: - My name is Bruce Richard Pollin. I am a leading seaman in H.M.C.S. Mulgrave. I identify the deceased as John Patrick Foster an able seaman on that ship, aged 27. On the 30th July last about 10.30 p.m. we were returning back on leave on a drifter. We had spoken to the Captain as to which ship he was going alongside next and another ship collided with us and the funnel and other things came down. I tried to get to Foster who I saw was mangled. I had one leg pinned and couldn't get out and one of the crew pulled me out. Later I was taken away by stretcher. The accident happened between the harbour and the Isle of Wight.

"B.R. Pollin".

THIS DEPONENT on Oath saith: - My name is Albert Victor Grantham. I am the changehand of the motor fishing vessel 1548. On the 30th July I was taking liberty men from S.R. Jetty Portsmouth to three destroyers in area 22. The deceased and Pollin were not amongst those who should have been aboard the ship having been misdirected to my ship and it was left to me to decide what should be done with them. I informed the 2 men that I had no alternative but to put them on board the Empress of Russia Depot Ship. On proceeding from H.M.S. Grenville to the Empress of Russia my vessel became involved in collision with L.T.T. 7069 about 10.45 p.m. Subsequent to the collision I was informed that the 2 ratings had become casualties. Doctor from H.M.S. Grenville was called for and attended and he informed me the deceased was very gravely injured having lost both legs, in the collision and immediate conveyance to Hospital was necessary in the hope of saving his life. Hospital boats from Empress of Russia were called for and the deceased was conveyed to the ship. I do not know how the deceased sustained the injuries from which he died. There was considerable damage to my ship. I think the deceaseds' legs were amputated on the sharp edge of the fiddley

"A.V. Grantham".
Chargehand.

THIS DEPONENT on Oath saith:- My name is Clemant Meyrick Norman. I am a surgeon Lt.

Comdr. R.N.V.R. the deceased was admitted on the 30th July suffering from traumatic amputation of both legs. He was severely shocked and deeply unconscious and died on the following morning at 11.35 a.m. from shock due to those injuries. His age was 27.
